Here Is One Treatment That All Sufferers Can Rely Upon.

Other numbers of the programme was a soprane solo by Mrs. Marjor, lawley and a vielly and plane ducty Brother C. C. Zahriskie and Sister Sophia B. Hollowell.

At the conclusion of the programme the Ladies' Work committee served refreshments in the form of fruit that was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The lecturer distributed the printed programmes covering the remainder of the year. While they show much that is timely, practical and intersting, they mean work for most of the members.

Prof. Roy C. Jones of Storrs College is expected to give a lecture on poul-try at the next meeting, March 11.

CONNECTICUT COLLEGE

The whole campus is permeated with the atmosphere of the coming sophomore hop, the largest social event to be given at the colices this year, and the largest class affair to be given during the college course. Curious looking framework is being put up in the gymnasium as yet undecorated, and a mysterious air pervades the whole place. The gym classes do Swedish exercises and folk dances to the sound of the hammer, tacking up the sound of the hammer, tacking up the sound of the hammer, tacking up the sound everyone wonders but what wire, and everyone wonders just what the decorations are to be. Packages and packages of white, orange and black crepe paper and piles of boxes are discernable in the dormitories and to an anxious inquirer the answer is always forthcoming: There's for the Parcel post is a popular feature these days, just before the dances; dresses, slippers and other essentials being anxiously awaited; while in the evening a group of girls may be seen sewing on satin, silk or cheumease, of gay colors; putting a stitch here, and something else there, herming or letting down the hem, putting in maline or taking it out. In fact wherever one goes, she is reminded of the comone goes, she is reminded of the com-ing event; it's fine if you are a sophomore or a senior, but it's hard on the juniors and freshmen.

Just to make things a bit exciting for themselves, the juniors will have for themselves, the juniors will have a class supper at a Chinese restaurant in New London on Friday evening. It has been rumored that a class muscot will make its appearance that night but no one exactly knows what is go-ing to happen. Miss Edita Lindholm of Middletown, president of the class, will act as toastmistress and call on prominent members of the class to speak. Class songs will be sung and ther features will make the supper a gray one. Following the supper the juniors will go to the movies and fihally come back to campus and gaze in upon their collego mates and try vainly to go to sleep while the or chestra is playing Hindustan or chestra is playing Hindustan on something just as bad from the Ca-nary. But at least there is the satis-faction in knowing that this year; uniors will be next year's seniors and that last year's sophomores are now his year's juniors, and that each reach as its recompense for those that were

The campus is beginning to show signs of life with the comfar of spring weather. A party of trustees and a member of the college architects' from have visited the college, and as if by magic stone is being quarried and brought from Bolleswood to the campus. Workmen are beginning to appear on the grounds and binsting in the heard daily. It is expected the work will commence as soon as the frost is out of the ground sufficient for ground to be broken. The prospect of a new dormitory is a very plensin one as it is a very material sign of the growth of the college, a fact which will always delight every college stu
